

OUR AUTHORS

This issue features contributions by:

Mark P. Altieri – Editor of Briefs, Mr. Altieri is a member of the Business Organizations and Tax Department, with an emphasis in non-qualified deferred compensation, executive compensation, fringe benefits and tax law generally.

Marsha L. Collett – Ms. Collett is a member of the Real Estate Department, and a well-recognized authority on environmental law. She is a member of the Coastal Resources Advisory Council, which advises the Ohio Department of Natural Resources on issues involving coastal management.

David L. Herzer – President of our Firm and a member of the Business Organizations and Tax Department, Mr. Herzer is a regular contributor to the Firm News column.

Richard A. Naegele – Mr. Naegele is a member of the Firm's Business Organizations and Tax Department, practicing primarily in pension and profit-sharing and related tax matters. Mr. Naegele is nationally recognized for his work in pension and profit-sharing law. He is a frequent speaker and author on pension and fringe benefit topics.

Todd A. Schrader – Mr. Schrader is a member of the Firm's Business Organizations and Tax Department, practicing primarily in limited liability company and real estate related matters.